MLK Book Dialogue on Women’s Health Ta’Nehisi Coates’ – “Eight Years in Power”

Join the UM MLK Health Sciences Units, Schools & Colleges book dialogue on We Were Eight Years in Power: An American Tragedy by Ta-Nehisi Coates—“The Fierce Urgency of Now - Moving Past Indecision to Action in Achieving Equity in Women’s Health.” After years of progress around reducing health disparities for women and children and achieving health equity “where do we go from here”!

Coates examines cultural and political themes around race & racism comparing a post Civil War Reconstruction period and The Obama Era. Both periods also saw progress in women’s issues and participants will use his framework to explore issues on equity in health & health care. Experts in women’s health from the health sciences including nursing, pharmacy, dentistry, medicine, public health, social work, etc. will lead interprofessional table dialogue discussions for students. Community members are also welcome There will be pizza, salad and beverages.
