UMHS NURSING POSTER DAY 2016

2016 UMHS NURSING POSTER DAY

Incredible is the best description of the eighth annual UMHS Nursing Poster session, held on September 26 and 27! The event celebrated the work of 44 different evidence-based practice and clinical innovation projects from nursing partners at the U of M Health System and School of Nursing. The posters spanned a variety of topics including succession planning, innovations which have decreased pressure ulcers, wound infections, and falls, and actions to promote a healthy practice environment for our nurses. Attendance was record-breaking and the audience included staff nurses, nursing students, faculty, nurse leaders and physicians. Rho Chapter once again sponsored the People's Choice award, chosen by vote of conference attendees. This year's award was given to Beljit (Nevi) Dhillon and Ilze Hallman from the Adult Inpatient Psychiatry Unit for their poster, "Decreasing Stress and Burnout in Nursing Staff by Utilizing Mindfulness Based Stress Reduction Techniques." Rho Chapter provided a donation to the Adult Inpatient Psychiatry unit's nursing education fund.

Other poster awards were given to:

Evidence Based Practice Category

Megan Smith, Evidence-Based Practice Category

Megan Smith and Connie Myres "Investigating the Practice of Using Breast Milk as an Oral Immune Therapy in the Pediatric Cardiothoracic ICU"

Clinical Innovation Category

Kailey Regalo-Miller and Sarah Taylor, Clinical Innovation Category winners

Kailey Regalo-Miller, Sarah Taylor, Trauma Burn ICU UBC, "Can the Implementation of a Chlorhexidine Bathing Protocol Decrease Infection Rates in a Burn Unit?"

First Time Presenter Award

Jennifer Zybert, First Time Presenter Award winner with her mentor Deborah Price

Jennifer Zybert (Co-Author/Mentor: Deborah Price), "Education Needs of Pediatric Nurses in Palliative and End-of-Life Care"

Congratulations to All!

PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

By Debbie Price, DNP, MS, RN,
President, Rho Chapter

Greetings! I'm honored to begin my term as Rho Chapter president. Thanks to the excellent leadership by my predecessors, Dr. Margaret Calarco and Dr. Sharon Smith, our chapter is moving forward with its strategic plan.

The chapter continues to focus on supporting scholarship and leadership development for Rho members as well as participation in service to our community. The chapter is supporting a variety of scholarly events this year, including research conferences at the U of M Health System and School of Nursing, an evidence-based practice conference in March, a leadership conference in January, and the SICU practice conference in February. Rho Chapter continues to offer a variety of grants to support research and evidence-based practice as well as travel grants to present scholarly work at conferences. Be sure to take advantage of these opportunities.

The board is also in the process of planning an event to support members who are beginning their nursing career. This event will be focused on obtaining that first job, being successful in the first year of the nursing career, and continuing one's professional development. The chapter is also planning resources to help members who are interested in publishing scholarly work, especially for those of you who have great projects but have never published. Both groups are in the planning stages and we will continue to communicate progress as we move forward.

I am excited about all of the new opportunities to serve Rho members. Please continue to support our chapter by continuing your membership and attending our events. The board meets monthly on the fourth Tuesday at 5pm in Room 1250 of the School of Nursing Building. Feel free to join us--we would love to hear your voice. On behalf of Rho Chapter I wish very happy holidays to everyone!

Meet the Rho Chapter Board & Committee Members 2016-2017

Here is an introduction to your chapter leaders for the upcoming year: Thank you to everyone who serves Rho Chapter as an officer or committee member. Rho Chapter is grateful for your service.

President: Deborah Price, DNP, MS, RN. Deb is a faculty member of the University of Michigan School of Nursing. She holds a DNP in Nursing from Oakland University, and a M.S. and B.S.N. from the University of Michigan. She currently teaches undergraduates, and also mentors graduate students. Deb's research and scholarship focus on interdisciplinary palliative and end-of-life care. She has presented nationally and published on teaching innovations in undergraduate education and palliative care.

Past President: Margaret M. Calarco, PhD, RN, is the Chief Nurse Executive at University of Michigan Health System and Adjunct Professor, The University of Michigan School of Nursing. Dr. Calarco holds a Ph.D. in Nursing from the University of Michigan, an M.S.N. in Psychiatric-Mental Health Nursing from Case Western Reserve University and a B.S.N. from the University of Cincinnati. Dr. Calarco has presented nationally and internationally, and has published widely in the areas of clinical depression, leadership and organizational change.

Vice-President: Elizabeth (Libby) Brough, PhD, RN. Libby is currently a Clinical Instructor at the School of Nursing, where she serves as a clinical faculty in the undergraduate program.. Her recent research has focused on understanding the role of emotions in chronic illness and using tailored messages to help women reduce hypertension. Her clinical work includes evidence-based practice projects with clinical nurse specialists and staff nurses

Secretary: Paul Edick BSN, RN is a staff nurse on the inpatient child and psychiatry unit at UMHS. He received his BSN from Michigan State University's College of Nursing second career program after receiving his BA from the University of Michigan. Paul is currently teaching undergraduate nursing students in Psychiatric-Mental Health Nursing course.

Treasurer: Cristina Wojack, MS, RN, AGACNP-BC, CCRN is a Nurse Practitioner at Beaumont Health System in Grosse Pointe with the SICU/Trauma team and a staff nurse at the University of Michigan Cardiovascular Intensive Care Unit. WELCOME, JASMINE JOHNSON, RHO CHAPTER STUDENT INTERN

Rho Chapter recently began an internship program to mentor new inductees as future leaders. We are excited to begin the second year of the program. Our current intern is Jasmine Johnson, a senior in the University of Michigan School of Nursing. She is from Farmington Hills, MI and attended Marian High School. Jasmine is involved in the Student Nurses' Association, Nursing Student Government, Nursing Diversity Committee, and the GENESIS project. Currently she works as a student nurse at the DMC Heart Hospital Cardiac ICU. Jasmine plans to get her DNP in order to work as a Women's Health Nurse Practitioner and to eventually become a Nursing Professor. During her time as Sigma Theta Tau Rho Chapter's Student Intern she plans to encourage students to receive further education and get involved in community service activities. Rho Chapter is excited to work with Jasmine and we look forward the energy that she will bring to our chapter's activities.

CONGRATULATIONS TO RHO CHAPTER SCHOLARSHIP

RECIPIENTS—Rho Chapter has established a scholarship fund to support one undergraduate and one graduate student each year. Here are the recipients of the 2016 scholarship awards. Thank you to all Rho members--your dues support made these scholarships possible!

Undergraduate Recipient: Alexandra Raklovits: Alexandra is a senior student in the traditional undergraduate program and is looking forward to graduating in May 2017. She is a study group facilitator to first and second year nursing students. She is interested in veteran's care, oncology, and critical care nursing. Eventually she would like to teach nursing students.

Alexandra thanks Rho members for the "wonderful gift that will help me to succeed in nursing school. I am very grateful that I was chosen for this scholarship. I have been working hard these past three years and it is rewarding to know that my hard work has paid off".

Graduate Recipient: Michael Barrett: Michael is enrolled in the adult acute care nurse practitioner masters program and expects to graduate in spring 2018. Eventually he plans to practice in pain management and is particularly interested in the problem of opioid addiction. Michael wrote in his letter of thanks, "When you decided to donate this money and considered the students reactions to the news it's everything you had hoped..... When something like this occurs in your life, you step back for a moment and say to yourself, 'you can do it'. This scholarship is that breath of fresh air when you're drowning in life...I'm grateful toward the people who decided I was worthy of investing."

KUDOS

Rho Chapter has once again earned a Showcase of Regional Excellence Award from Sigma Theta Tau International for its work in supporting the Presidential Call to Action goals of philanthropy and lifelong learning through its scholarship and grant funds as well as supporting educational opportunities for members.

Deb Price recently received a 2017 Research Abstract Award from AACN for her poster submission, Perceived Palliative and EOL Care Knowledge Attitudes and Behaviors Amongst Health Professionals. The award includes selection for a podium presentation and travel funds.

Stephen Strobbe was inducted as a Fellow of the International Academy of Addictions Nursing (FIAAN) in October at the 40th Annual Educational Conference of the International Nurses Society on Addictions (IntNSA) in Las Vegas, Nevada. The following day, at the close of the annual business meeting, he was inaugurated as the President of IntNSA.

Jody Lori received the 2016 Nursing Outlook Excellence in Policy Writing Award from the American Academy of Nursing at the awards ceremony on Thursday October 20th. Her co-authored article is Forced migration: health and human rights issues among refugee populations. Lori JR, Boyle JS. Nurs Outlook. 2015 Jan-Feb;63(1):68-76. doi: 10.1016/j.outlook.2014.10.008. Epub 2014 Nov 4.

Michelle Munro-Kramer's work on sexual violence prevention was recently noted in the September 22 issue of the University Record <http://record.umich.edu/articles/u-m-shapes-sexual-violence-prevention-program-ghana>. Along with Sarah Rominski of Global REACH, the Medical School's international initiative and a team of researchers, she is working closely with faculty and students in Ghana to create a sexual violence prevention and education program at the University of Cape Coast.

Dr. Milisa Manojlovich along with Dr. Chris Friese received a R01 award from AHRQ for their project, "Communication Processes, Technology, and Patient Safety in Ambulatory Oncology Settings."

Lisa Kane Low is a principle investigator on a grant to promote interprofessional education. Along with Megan Eagle, Michelle Pardee and April Bigelow from the School of Nursing and Joe House and Hari Conjeevaram from the Medical School they will be helping nurse practitioner and medical students to work effectively to provide care at the Student Run Free Clinic in Pinkney.

Gina Dahlem was recently inducted in the Fellows of the American Association of Nurse Practitioners (FAANP).

Martha Funnell, MS, RN, CDE was among 164 nurses to be inducted into the American Academy of Nursing in October. Her research focuses on diabetes care and self-management, patient education, psychosocial support and behavioral goal-setting in chronic disease, care management training, and patient-professional communication strategies.

WELCOME DEAN HURN!

Welcome to our newest Rho member, Dean Patricia Hurn. Dr. Patricia Hurn was recently appointed as Dean for the School of Nursing for a five year term. Dean Hurn was previously vice chancellor for research and innovation and executive officer of the University of Texas System where she was the chief health research officer for the system's six health organizations. Dean Hurn is a transdisciplinary researcher and teacher and she brings an open and collaborative approach to leadership. Her track record with student success, faculty development, and translational research position her to lead the School of Nursing in its current initiatives. One of her favorite expressions is that we are all members of a "tribe." As a member of the nursing tribe, Rho Chapter looks forward to supporting Dean Hurn's leadership and scholarship development initiatives.
